

Injury Prevention Resources

Toys and Consumer Products

Recalls.gov: Online resource to provide better service in alerting the American people to unsafe, hazardous or defective products, six federal agencies with vastly different jurisdictions have joined together to create www.recalls.gov -- a "one stop shop" for U.S. Government recalls. www.recalls.gov

U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC): The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission is charged with protecting the public from unreasonable risks of serious injury or death from thousands of types of consumer products under the agency's jurisdiction. The CPSC is committed to protecting consumers and families from products that pose a fire, electrical, chemical, or mechanical hazard or can injure children. www.cpsc.gov

Child Safety Publications: Brochures, tips and resources regarding consumer products published by the Consumer Product Safety Commission. http://www.cpsc.gov/cpsc/pub/pubs/chld\_sfy.html

Kids In Danger: Kids In Danger (KID) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to protecting children by improving children's product safety. www.kidsindanger.org

ToyInfo.org: Sponsored by the Toy Industry Association, a parent's resource for facts and information about toy safety. <http://www.toyinfo.org/>

Juvenile Products Manufacturers Association (JPMA): The Juvenile Products Manufacturers Association has a certification program that has been guiding parents for more than 20 years. A JPMA Certification Seal on any product or its packaging assures that the manufacturer designed and built it with safety in mind and ensures that the product was built to the very highest safety standards. www.jpma.org

Burn and Fire Prevention

American Burn Association: The American Burn Association is dedicated to improving the lives of everyone affected by burn injury through patient care, education, research and advocacy. Other key activities include providing continuing education courses, annual scientific meetings, and scientific publications. www.ameriburn.org

Burn Prevention Foundation: The Burn Prevention Foundation is committed to promoting safety by teaching the public how to recognize and avoid fire hazards and other burn risks. The Foundation offers numerous educational programs and seminars, as well as a wide variety of educational materials, audio-visual presentations and displays. www.burnprevention.org

U.S. Fire Administration (USFA): As an entity of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the mission of the United States Fire Administration is to reduce life and economic losses due to fire and related emergencies, through leadership, advocacy, coordination and support. USFA serves the nation in coordination with other Federal agencies and in partnership with fire protection and emergency service communities. USFA provides public education, training, technology and data initiatives.

www.usfa.fema.gov

National Fire Protection Association (NFPA): The mission of the international nonprofit NFPA is to reduce the worldwide burden of fire and other hazards on quality of life by providing and advocating scientifically based consensus codes and standards, research, training and education. NFPA membership totals more than 75,000 individuals from around the world and more than 80 national trade and professional organizations. www.nfpa.org

Child Passenger Safety

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA): NHTSA's mission is to save lives, prevent injuries and reduce economic costs due to road traffic crashes, through education, research, safety standards and enforcement activity. An agency under the U.S. Department of Transportation, NHTSA has resources on a range of traffic safety topics, including child passenger safety, occupant protection and bicycle safety. www.nhtsa.dot.gov

Kids and Cars: KIDS AND CARS' mission is to assure no child dies or is injured in a non-traffic, motor vehicle related event. These accidents include back overs and children being left in cars.

<http://www.kidsandcars.org/>

Boosterseat.gov: Booster seat information from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

<http://www.boosterseat.gov/>

Ollie Otter: Ollie Otter's child booster seat safety program teaches Tennessee school kids child booster seat laws and regulations for car booster seat requirements in nation's first statewide seatbelt and booster seat education campaign. <http://www.seatbeltvolunteer.org/>

Tween Traffic Safety: This web site is a portal to tween-targeted traffic safety information – materials, facts, insights and recommendations specifically for 8- to 12-year-olds from a range of sources created by the Automotive Coalition for Traffic Safety. <http://www.tweensafety.org/>

Safest Generation: Interactive vehicle safety resource for tweens sponsored by Safe Kids Worldwide

<http://www.safestgeneration.org/>

Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) Center for Injury Research and Prevention: As long as there are childhood injuries, there will be a need to apply the tools of science to prevent them. The Center for Injury Research and Prevention is a comprehensive pediatric trauma research facility at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia dedicated to addressing injury, the leading cause of death for children and adolescents. <http://stokes.chop.edu/programs/injury/>

Home Safety

Home Safety Council: The Home Safety Council channels funds into a variety of charitable and educational projects with the goal of preventing home injuries. Members of the Council include national safety-related organizations, manufacturers and notable individuals who have the desire and ability to contribute to this effort. Home Safety Council works with local fire departments, school systems and other community organizations to assist people to make their homes into safe havens for themselves and loved ones. www.homesafetycouncil.org

MySafeHome.org: Home Safety Council's website dedicated to helping parents create a safe home. <http://homesafetycouncil.org/mysafehome/index.aspx>

Poison Safety

American Association of Poison Control Centers (AAPCC): The American Association of Poison Control Centers is a nationwide organization of poison centers and interested individuals promoting the reduction of morbidity and mortality from poisonings. AAPCC promotes a toll-free 24-hour poison emergency help line, 1-800-222-1222. www.poisonprevention.org

Driving Safety

Project Ignition: What is Project Ignition? It's a grant program that uses service-learning to help address teen driver safety issues. Sponsored by State Farm Insurance. <http://www.sfprojectignition.com/>

AAA DUI Justice Link: Website designed to provide criminal justice professionals with easily accessible, impartial information on a wide range of impaired-driving issues related to the detection, prosecution and adjudication of drunken drivers. <http://www.aaaduijusticelink.com/Main/>

National Teen Driver Safety Week: National Teen Driver Safety Week 2008 piloted the Ride Like A Friend program, based on recent research that stresses the importance of safe passenger behavior. Get ready for National Teen Driver Safety Week 2009. <http://www.ridelikeafriend.com/organizer/>

High School Driver.com: Variety of resources for teen drivers including a teen driving contract. http://www.highschooldriver.com/docs/parent\_teen\_contract.pdf

Bicycle and Pedestrian Safety

National Center for Biking and Walking: The organization provides Safe Routes to School, Walkable Community, and other community-based workshops, consulting, training programs, conferences, including the international Pro Walk/Pro Bike Conference, and publishes the biweekly CenterLines newsletter, delivered to nearly 3,000 professionals and advocates around the world. www.bikewalk.org

BikeSafe: Information and games regarding bicycle and road safety from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. <http://www.dot.state.pa.us/BIKE/WEB/games.htm>

Bicyclinginfo.org: Funded by the U.S. Department of Transportation Federal Highway Administration this site contains a variety of bicycling and pedestrian information. www.bicyclinginfo.org

School Bus Safety Web: School bus safety tips for kids, parents and educators from Pupil Transportation in North Carolina <http://itre.ncsu.edu/ghsp/ncbussafety.html>

PedBikeInfo.org: Funded by the U.S. Department of Transportation Federal Highway Administration this site contains a variety of pedestrian and bicycling information. www.pedbikeinfo.org

National Center for Safe Routes to School: Community leaders, parents and schools across the U.S. are using Safe Routes to School programs to enable and encourage more children to safely walk and bicycle to school. The National Center for Safe Routes to School assists communities in developing successful Safe Routes to School strategies. www.saferoutesinfo.org

Association of Pedestrian and Bicycle Professionals (APBP): APBP has numerous resources and publications to help the bicycle and pedestrian professionals. APBP offers excellent networking opportunities, productive professional development events, and the most current and best resources for an increasingly important profession. www.apbp.org

Bicycle Helmet Safety Institute: BHSI is a small, active non-profit that serves as a consumer advocacy program and a technical resource for bicycle helmet information. BHSI provides an email newsletter, and sends out many copies of its Toolkit for Helmet Promotion Programs to anyone who is organizing a helmet effort, and to anyone needing materials for teaching. <http://www.bhsi.org/>

Playground Safety

National Program for Playground Safety: The National Program for Playground Safety serves as a national clearinghouse for playground safety information, conducts ongoing research in the area of injury prevention, produces educational tools, and sponsors a National Playground Safety Week. www.uni.edu/playground

Internet Safety

Netsmartz411: Sponsored by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, NetSmartz411 is parents' and guardians' premier, online resource for answering questions about Internet safety, computers, and the Web. www.netsmartz411.org

Internet Keep Safe Organization: The Internet Keep Safe Coalition is a broad partnership of governors and/or first spouses, attorneys general, public health and educational professionals, law enforcement, and industry leaders working together for the health and safety of youth online. iKeepSafe® uses these unique partnerships to disseminate safety resources to families worldwide. www.ikeepsafe.org

Stranger Safety:

National Center for Missing and Exploited Children: NCMEC is a private, 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable organization that works in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Justice's Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. Multiple resources for parents, law enforcement, child care providers and others to protect children. www.missingkids.com

Power of Parents: Nothing can substitute the importance of parents and guardians having safety discussions with their children. Duracell and the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children (NCMEC) recognize age-appropriate child safety tips and strategies, while also spotlighting advances in technology that can help parents and guardians when it comes to keeping their children safer. www.powerofparentsonline.com/

The Safe Side: The Safe Side is dedicated to making kids safer. In addition to publishing programs for kids and parents, the Company donates 10% of gross proceeds from distribution to The National Center For Missing & Exploited Children. www.thesafeside.com

Safety Games – Kid Focused

POWER Safety Game: Program of Wellness Education and Resources (POWER), a partnership between the Junior League of Dayton and Dayton Children’s created this online game for children to learn about and identify common household hazards.

http://www.childrensdayton.org/Safety\_Tips/Power\_Safety\_House/www/POWERhouse.swf

National Crime Prevention Council/McGruff: NCPC has a variety of informational resources and products to help parents protect their children. Two resources that can help parents keep their children safe online are McGruff SafeGuard (the result of a new partnership between NCPC and Parents on Patrol) and McGruff Kid Safe Web Browser (the result of a new partnership between NCPC and the Children’s Educational Network). <http://www.mcgruff.org/>

Kidd Safety: Web resource from the CPSC to teach kids about common, household injuries.

<http://www.cpsc.gov/KIDS/kidsafety/index.html>

Sparky.org: Fun and games from the National Fire Protection Association featuring Sparky the dog.

<http://www.sparky.org/arcade.html>

CodeRedRover.org: Online games to teach children home safety created by the Home Safety Council.

<http://www.coderedrover.org/games.html>

USFA Kids: Resource with a variety of games to learn about fire safety from the U.S. Fire Administration.

<http://www.usfa.dhs.gov/kids/flash.shtm>

Public Safety Kids: Safety games to teach kids about street safety from the Ohio Department of Public Safety.

www.publicsafety.ohio.gov/kids/html/kidsland.html

Additional Resources: Multiple Risk Categories

Safe Kids USA: Safe Kids USA is a member of Safe Kids Worldwide, a global network of organizations whose mission is to prevent accidental childhood injury, a leading killer of children 14 and under.

Information and data on childhood injury prevention throughout the country. www.usa.safekids.org.

The Children’s Medical Center of Dayton: The Children's Medical Center of Dayton is the region's pediatric referral center. Dayton Children's is the only facility in the region with a full-time commitment to health care needs of infants, children and teens. Multiple Child Health Information sheets and other information regarding childhood injuries in the Dayton area available. www.childrensdayton.org

Kohl's a Minute for Kids: Microsite sponsored by Kohl's Department Store and The Children's Medical Center of Dayton focusing on top health and safety topics in the Dayton area. Handouts and curriculum available. <http://kohlsminutes.childrensdayton.org/>

University of North Carolina Highway Safety Research Center: Information on interdisciplinary research aimed at reducing deaths, injuries and related societal costs of roadway crashes. www.hsrb.unc.edu

Child Safety Solutions: A resource to purchase fun, age appropriate, teaching tools you can use to support your community safety programs. Some free downloads available. www.imsafe.com

Children's Safety Network (CSN): The CSN National Injury and Violence Prevention Resource Center is located at the Education Development Center, Inc. It provides resources and technical assistance to maternal and child health agencies and other organizations seeking to reduce unintentional injuries and violence to children and adolescents. It is one of four Children's Safety Network Resource Centers funded by the Maternal and Child Health Bureau of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. www.csn.org/

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC): The CDC, an agency of the Department of Health and Human Services, works to promote health and quality of life by preventing and controlling disease, injury and disability. The National Center for Injury Prevention and Control, a division of the CDC, works to reduce morbidity, mortality, disability and costs associated with injuries. This organization produces publications and information related to health and family safety. The Center also serves as a clearinghouse for lead poisoning information, providing grant funding for childhood lead poisoning prevention programs and related research in this area. www.cdc.gov

American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP): The American Academy of Pediatrics is an organization of 60,000 primary care pediatricians, pediatric medical sub-specialists, and pediatric surgical specialists committed to the attainment of optimal physical, mental and social well-being for all infants, children, adolescents and young adults. www.aap.org

National Center for Education in Maternal and Child Health (NCEMCH): NCEMCH is funded by the Health Resources and Services Administration, Maternal and Child Health Bureau, a branch of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. NCEMCH provides national leadership to the maternal and child health community in three key areas – program development, education, and state-of-the-art knowledge – to improve the health and well-being of the nation's children and families. www.ncemch.org

National Safety Council: The National Safety Council has home- and community-based programs that provide information on health and safety. In addition to programming, the Council promotes injury prevention through public policy, research, and publications. www.nsc.org

The Ohio Violence & Injury Prevention Program: The Ohio Violence & Injury Prevention Program is working toward the development of a comprehensive injury prevention program for the State of Ohio. www.odh.ohio.gov/odhPrograms/hprp/injprev/ovipp.aspx

Safety4Kids: Safety4Kids, LLC (S4K)® is the first integrated, global multimedia brand whose primary focus is to promote the safety and wellness of children through quality entertainment and products. S4K's flagship television program, SeeMore's Playhouse™, which airs on Public Broadcast System (PBS) stations nationwide, helps children learn and practice critical safety concepts while enjoying laugh-out loud fun. www.safety4kids.com